

Charotar Education Society

Charotar Education Society is a charitable school institute founded with the aim of providing quality education to children from diverse backgrounds. Our organization is based in the Charotar region of Gujarat, India, and has been serving the community for several decades.

We believe that education is a fundamental right of every child, and our mission is to provide access to affordable and high-quality education to children who might otherwise not have the opportunity to attend school. Our approach to education is based on a holistic development model that focuses on the academic, social, emotional, and spiritual growth of our students.

Vision

It is imperative that every child, regardless of background, social status, or economic status of the child, has access to a quality education that nurtures his or her individuality while also preparing the child with the skills they need to be successful in a world that is constantly evolving. We must make sure that every child has access to this education if we are to achieve the goal of having such a society

Mission

The Charotar Education Society strives to provide high-quality and affordable education to children from diverse backgrounds, emphasizing academic, social, emotional, and spiritual development. To foster critical thinking, creativity, and leadership skills in an inclusive and nurturing learning environment. Educating our students about respect, compassion, and integrity is essential to preparing them to contribute positively to society. Our focus is on continuous improvement and innovation in all facets of education, and partnering with families, educators, and community members to meet those goals.

Council of Society

The council consisted of seven members who were elected from among all the members of the society like patrons, vice patrons, donors, fellows and volunteers. The council members had to select the Chairman from among them. Every three year the council was elected and the members elected earlier were also eligible to submit their candidatures.
